

By the Lord Lieutenant and Councell.

OR MONDE.

WE doe hereby declare and publish that all such persons, Shippes, Barques and other Vessells whatsoever, and of what Countrey or Nation soever they bee, that shall within the space of six moneths next ensuing, bring by Sea to Dublin, Drogheda, Dundalke, or Carlingford, any Provisions Commodities or Merchandizes whatsoever, for the reliefe of His Majesties good Subjects in those places, shall be free to goe and come, and to sell and dispose thereof to their sole and proper use, at their wills and pleasures, according to the custome of free marketts, without being forced, pressed, imploied or deteyned, in any service whatsoever without their owne consents, provided that at the time of their trading at those places as aforesaid, noe Hostile Act be committed against any His Majesties Subjects or others in any of the Harbours of the said Townes, by any of the said persons or Shippes Barques or other Vessells, and that such of them as shall come on shoare, doe behave themselves as becomes dutifull and loyall Subjects; And in further favour of all such as shall bring in Provisions to any of those places, Wee doe hereby also declare and publish that all Provisions, Commodities and Merchandizes of what kinde or nature soever, which shall be imported by Sea to Dublin, Drogheda, Dundalke or Carlingford, within the space of six moneths next ensuing, and all native Commodities that shall be imported by Land to the said Townes (except hides skinnes wooll and linnen yarne) shall be imported free of all Impositions whatsoever, which on such Provisions, Commodities or Merchandizes so imported, were imposed to be paid into the Impost-office for or in respect of Importation, but shall be charged for the importation, onely with the Customes Subsidies & Imposts expressed in the printed booke of Rates, and payable usually into His Majesties Custome house before the 23. of October, 1641.

And whereas by severall Orders of this Board made since the 23. of October, 1641. there is an Imposition laid on the severall Commodities to be exported by Sea as followeth, viz.

Brasse and Pewter per Cent. ———	vii. s.	Sheepes skinnes per Cent. ———	vii. s.
Tallow & Candles per Cent. ———	v. s.	Lynnen yarne per packe ———	ii. l.
Calfes skinnes per dozen ———	viii. d.	Broad cloath the short peece } ———	vii. s.
Cowes per peece ———	iii. s.	containing 24 yards
Fox-cases per peece ———	v. d.	Herrings per barrell ———	ii. s.
Salt Hydes per peece ———	xii. d.	Frize per hundred yards ———	iii. s.
Horses per peece ———	iii. s.	Feathers per Cent. ———	iii. s.
Kidskinnes per Cent. ———	viii. d.	Goatskinnes per Cent. ———	iii. s.
Lambskinnes per Cent. ———	ii. s.	Wooll per stone of 16 ^l . to the stone xviii. d.

Wee doe hereby declare that from henceforth all the said last mentioned severall species, to be exported by Sea Dublin, Drogheda, Dundalke or Carlingford, within the said six moneths next ensuing, shall be exported free of all the said Impositions so laid on them as aforesaid, since the 23. of October, 1641. but shall be charged onely with the Customes Subsidies and Imposts expressed in the printed booke of Rates, and payable usually before the said 23. of October, 1641.

Given at His Majesties Castle of Dublin, 14. of April, 1646.

Edw. Brabazon. Geo. Cloyne. Cha. Lambart. Gerrard Lowther. Hen. Tichborne.
Fr. Willoughby. Tho. Lucas. Robert Forth. Ia. Ware. G. Wentworth.

GOD SAVE THE KING.